FOREWORD

In presenting the 2nd volume of "voice of experiences" of LALL-DED, my endeavour is to give the readers the essence of LALL VAAKHS. To me, feeling and reverence for each of the VAAKHS dealt with, are of more meaning and of greater consequence than anythings else. It will be admitted that the field of this work is much too wide to be covered with first hand knowledge by any one. These glimpses may only be considered as an initiation in the subject. I have endeavoured to bring out the individuality of each of the VAAKHS. I humbly acknowledge myself to be a student and shall remain content with that name. LALL-VAAKHS can be explained as an impulse of the human mind, which prompted LAL-DED to investigate, the causes of things. It is something more than curiosity. It implies an element of belief in the existence of higher feelings and will, constitute the essence of Her SADHNA.

LAL-DED says, " 'God' is near to man ready to hear his sighs, answers his humble petitions, count his tears and relieve his wants, when his own power, fails. Wherever a man seeks Him there 'He' is " .

Contentment is a great virtue for it implies surrender to divine will. One must surrender oneself to the divine will humbly in fear of God rather than in fear of his punishment. An individual has a divine instinct in him by which the "unheard becomes the heard and the unknown becomes the known". The ATMAN is attained in the moments of illumination. It is an ineffable and indescribable vision. In the end Lal-DED says "the conception of 'SHIVA' is the highest happiness of religious consciousness."

As per her SADHNA she exhorts all the aspirants to be regular in japa, and meditation thus their doubts will vanish of themselves, in a mysterious manner. Many to whom this gift was imparted late in life have nevertheless been refreshed and delighted by it. She exhorts all men of faith, who desire a noble and holy life and pray to God for it and continue constantly in this desire, it will be granted to them without fail.

The subject and practice of YOGA is said to have passed down from generation to generation until the great sage PATANJLI, CODIFIED them in the 196 sutras or aphorism. The YOGA sutras are the fountain head of all. YOGIC teachings PATANJLI, says that YOGA is an eight fold path "YOGA SUTRA".

(1) Yama (2) Niyama (3) Asana (4) Pranayama (5) Pratyahara (6) Dharna (7) Dyana (8) Smadhi.

These are the eight limbs of 'YOGA'.

(1) Yama (2) Niyama (Moral codes)

- (3) Asana : Physical conditioning
- (4) Pranayama :- Breath control
- (5) Pratyahara :- Sense Control
- (6) Dhaarna :- Concentration
- (7) Dhayana :- Meditation
- (8) Smadhi :- State of peace beyond-ordinary consciousness.

Yama and Niyama are regulatory ethical practices morals of life. While performing an ASANA it is important to have a perfect coordination, in breath senses. Pratayara is the limbs to be able to purify the consciousness. Beginning of practice, in meditation should normally always be with the Asanas. Asanas give us door way to enter the inner realms of our system. They allow us access to our bones, joints organs, tissues, glands and cells. The Asans refine the body, the souls abode, so that it serves the human body efficiently.

The Asanas can be described as carrying out surgical procedures without cutting open the body, an intricate purification process'.

Where is the centre of consciousness?

It is everywhere. The brain is very active when a person is conscious. There are multiple areas, these are somehow working together, each one has its own signature, its own contribution. So consciousness grows as brain grows.

Sun is a symbol of cosmic awareness, the sun has always been a symbol of knowledge as the brightest star in the SKY the centre of our planetary systems. Its light signifies the universal awareness and dispelling of ignorance. Let us meditate on its brilliance so that it may illuminate and inspire our intellect. The cosmic ground of awareness is symbolised by the sun whose dazzling rays invigorate the living spirit.

The sun is the natural source of unwavering devotion to its karma. It has never failed to rise and set at the appropriate hour. The sun appears every morning having vanquished the darkness of night and awakens all the creation.

The sun embodies the order of the universe which sustains the lives of all beings. The Sun's heat and light nourishes creation and is the precondition for existence. In the absence of light 'photosynthesis' (the process by which the energy of sun light is trapped by the chlorophyll of green plants and used to build up complete, material from carbon dioxide and water) would be impossibility.

Elated astronomess have announced the discovery of new First Multiplanet system, ever found around a normal star other than our own.

The signals of three orbiting worlds emerged from eleven years of telescopic observation of star "Upsilon-Andromedae" which is bright enough to see with Naked Eye and is a relatively close, 44 light years eg 425 Trillion kilometers from earth in the constellation "Andromeda".

While the new solar system does not appear hospitable to life, the discovery implies that planets can be formed more easily, than we ever imagined and that our Milky way is teeming with planetary systems.

The new found solar system, following a trend set by the single planets detected around sun like stars in recent years exhibits orbital oddities and some other properties.

All the three planets orbiting round the new sun are whoppers ranging from at least 2/3rd to four (4) times the mass of Jupiter. The Data suggests they are giant gas balls like Jupiter with no surface to pool liquid water - a requirement of life as we know it.

Two of the planets orbit their star new (Sun) which is younger and hotter than our sun at a distance similar to those of Venus and Mars 77 million and 232 million miles respectively.

The inner most of the Triplet first detected in 1996 is so close to the star, that its year's one complete trip around takes only 46 days.

The earth's home galaxy, the Milky way has about 200 million stars. In a remarkable burst of discovery that began in 1995, planet hunters have detected a total of 20 worlds around sun like stars, including the triplets .

In 1996 Mr Marcy and R.Paul Butler of the British Austrian observatory detected the inner most planet around the "Upsilon Andromedae" . One of a number of Lone planets they have found in surveys of hundreds of sun like stars from the Lick observatory in CALIFORNIA and Powerful KEK Telescope in the Hawaii.

Lal-DED says,

"Sowargas Pheers Burgas Burgas

Torgas Khasith Maarim Chaity"

That during my wandering as a particle in Hyper space I had a chance to go through the belt of heavens including all apparent position of sun and its planets utilising the electro magnetic waves as a steed and galloped through all the belts of stars there in. So it shows that Lal-DED has observed most of the places in the hyper space, she felt as if all the objects, in nature rejoice in her happiness. She meditated upon the Auspicious light of the suns and those heavenly lights illumined her thought flow in her intellect.

Lal DED acquired 'Yogic power with the release of Hormons, (Shishikal)

TWAI SHESHIKAL WEGLITH VACHAM

SHUNIS SHUNIA MEELITH GAV

That is why I was reduced to nothingness and mingled with nothing-ness of Cosmos. i.e I was converted into vibration form and mingled with the celestial wave form released by the almighty Lord, that is how she could travel to cosmos and come Back.

"DEESH AAYAS DASH DEESH TEELITH

CHALITH CHOTUM SHUNI TA WAAW"

Lal-DED after her travels in the cosmos as a energy particle says "I have come back to my place, after piercing thro ten different universes, with different atmospheres and spaces, in the Hyper space.

"NEERITH GACHAN TEELITH EVAAN

'LALL' BO PANIA DAYEE CHAS"

I transform myself into vibrational (energy) form and through it I travel beyond cosmos and then come back to my physical body from again lo ! 'I am the embodiment of the Lord'.

What astronomers can see are stars. As large planets revolve arounds their stars, they exert gravitational pull that causes stars to wobble. The speed of the wobble indicates how long a planet takes to circle a star.

Let us meditate on her brilliance so that it may illuminate and inspire our intellect, may we behold or obtain that desirable lustre of her gracious self.

O. Blessed one:

Those Aspirants who keep faith in the sacred words & the towering personality of their Guru, shape their lives towards attaining the path, that brings peace of mind. The Guru becomes a connecting link between God and Man,

The Guru unravels the divine knowledge and reveals the secrets of the organs of action and perception.

He makes the disciple, to live in constant devotion & penance. The disciple who with self surrender follows the precepts of the Guru is enriched with a spiritual force & his vital powers soar higher and higher as such he never dies and is never slain.

Note: by meeting the true Guru who has removed pride from his heart and who preaches the truest of the true, the true one is realised. He is constant in devotion and penance. He is Humble and contented.

The Guru is sinless, he is above man's capacities when a man is completely attuned to the divine 'will' he is sanctified as a Guru and he becomes perfect and holy. The aspirant must merge himself with the Guru and be thus imbued with indestructible power and force.

GURAS PRECHEOME SASS LATTAI

YAS NA KENH VANAAN TAS KYAH NAAV

PRECHAAN PRECHAAN THACHIS TALOOSES

KENH NAS NISHAY KEYHATAM DRAAV

O Blessed one:-

I requested my Guru, a thousand times, with an acute analysis of consciousness "He that is "nameless", How that nameless is named". Since the curiosity to know is a worship of higher order, it implies a belief in the existence of higher power, without which there could be no worship. It was by gradual process of thought, that Lal Ded wanted to become conscious of a new force, for establishing the identity of the Lord. As her soul was in agony she asked and asked till she became tired, mute and silent. Lo ! the nameless non existent, and invisible became the source of her realisation. This is the beginning of her awakening in the arena of spiritual bliss, that paved way to enter into the realm of ecstasy and that resulted in the realisation of something out of nothing.

Note:-

The devotee in order to attain his goal has to place himself under the guidance of Guru, and thus he becomes a disciple. It is believed that the Guru is able to infuse spiritual power in the disciple and it is he alone who can lead his disciple from the first to the last stages of his journey of realisation. The disciple must bear his Guru in mind and become mentally absorbed in him. The whole of Lal-DED's teachings rests on the belief that when individual self is lost, the universal self is found, as such the ecstasy affords the only means by which the soul can directly communicate and become united with God.

{3} गुरु कथ हृदयस मण्ज बाग रटम

GURU KATH HRIADIYAS MANZ, BAAG RATTAM
GANG ZAL NAAVAM TAN TAI MAN
SO DEH JEEVAN MOKHTI PRAVOOM
YEM BHYYII CHOLLUM POLLOOM AKH

O Blessed one:-

Since I have developed close association with my Guru. I have merged myself completely in him and followed his precepts with heart and soul, my vital powers soared higher a higher, & thus I have washed my mind and body with the sacred waters of Ganga (Harmones released from the Brain) and a strange realisation of joy and ecstasy was realised by me and as such I was able to release my soul from the bondage of karma and transcended the possibility of rebirth, as such I attained deliverance, with all my body intact, now I have become "Jeewan Mukht". The birth of the birthless means the revelation of the mystery in the soul of man and thus I enjoy an endless and unbroken calm. As such the fear of death lurking within my mind was removed. So slowly and slowly I came nearer and nearer to the gracious light of the Lord. It enveloped me and resulted in my final absorption with that Gracious One alone.

Note:-

The "JEEVAN MUKHT", in his upward path towards union with God, receives light of illumination, in varying measures. The mystic illumination, in which the Absolute makes himself evident, is the divine essence of Lord. At this stage the aspirant becomes a perfect unit, or the universal helpmate to whom all resort for aid. He subdues the sensible world by his might and does what he wills by his power.

O Blessed one:-

My Guru in one word directed me to withdraw my Gaze from without to within. There was a moment of suspense. As water blends with water so I was completely attuned to the divine will. I rejoiced with a child like joy, My patience was disappearing what touched me above all was the simplicity of the holy saint his balmy touch and his sacred word which changed the whole course of my life. A flood of renunciation filled my mind. The towering personality of the Guru assisted me in shaping my life towards divinity I found exceeding peace with a magnificent celestial wakening light around. I began to toss my head in sprightly dance completely Naked unaware of myself.

O Blessed one:-

"Lall DED; exhorts all Sadaks and seekers of truth, to have close relations with the Guru, as such they must merge with the divine spirit of Guru with such a zeal, that they must take him as the embodiment of their parents. Guru changes the disciples physical, mental, and spiritual powers. Thus it is with the balmy touch of the Guru that the mental "third eye" is awakened.

My Guru is sinless he is above man's capacities he is humble, humane perfect and holy. Guru has directed me to under-take service to fellowmen & poverty stricken multitudes. It is the practical expression of Love. The actions which lead to Good Karma and bring peace are called 'Punya, Punya is the moral strength consisting in willfull practising good with Love & intelligence. It transforms the soul, providing it with a source of energy to rise higher, as such the seeker is absolved of all the sins.

Note:-

"To honour those who are worthier than oneself is the highest expression of the sense of abnegation. It is the cultivation of one's self with reverential care."

O Blessed one:-

There is no light greater in intensity than the Love and affection of the Lord as such Lalla exhorts, that men of all faiths should overflow with this affectionate devotion. The Sadak should never find himself in a situation where he cannot maintain his individuality. To develop universal love, the seeker has to engage himself in activity which can restore in him the prestige, dignity and Glory of man. What does not correspond to the ideal of Beauty one must not discuss. Then further she says there is no pilgrimage worth the name than the place where one sits to seek His gracious presence. It is the seat of emotions and feeling. It is a place where one gets blissful intoxication. It is a place where one does not have impure thoughts except pure existence. Then further she says " there is no personal relationship worth the name than that of the almighty "Lord". Here one implores the creators assistance, and thanks Him for granting the boon. In this way the seeker gives expression to his humility and dependence.

Further she exhorts the people of all faiths that there is no comfort than to have the "fear of the "Lord". He is watching our affairs from moment to moment. But he is invisible to the world just to keep the sanctity of 'His' grace. Thereby one submits to the will of the God, which is the law of Holiness. Holiness means the purity of body and mind. If a man is good, pure and holy, he will remain so even after his death.

Note:- Love is the impulse of sense and sensibility. It is the joy which the mind enjoys when it reaps the fruit of its good actions. So the path to liberation is inner Conversion which is brought about by the overflow of the affectionate devotion. It is the realisation of the merger of imperfection into perfection.

O Blessed one:-

Lall-ded Says, "Prithee tell me, who is that ? Who you are and who am I ?" Then she herself answers that He, you, and I are permanent imperishable 'Self'. The delusion of "mine" "yours" and "His", is caused when one identifies the self with the perishable body. One should therefore detach one, self from the false sense of 'I'. "Destroy ignorance with faith and devotion, attach yourself to that imperishable self and thus attain freedom from Bondages". Her poetic ingenuity in expressing the universality of the soul in more lucid and lively. She explains the discord with life is only because people don't believe in the light within themselves. This state of mind gives a fore taste of bliss and which is the realisation of conscious self. Then she further explains that it is by gradual process of evolution that 'Life' is conceived, and an ideal being enters in the womb of the mother in the form of soul to which, LALL AREFERS in Kashmiri as 'Batook' a swan, at that very moment the inception of life comes about, and the soul or mind starts pulsating with the inhale and exhale of breath. Then by and by child grows in the womb to its full development then after the birth freedom of spirit is reached when God in him realizes itself.

So God in the form of soul in the body develops to its full strength, and by and by the soul itself acquires the knowledge of Nine gateways and develops ten powers. As such the body with its developed mind develops an instinct and inspiration of proceeding towards. Him with all devotion and zeal.

In order to gain, God-consciousness of higher order. The body secretes a Hormone in the ductless glands of the brain by intense concentration and meditation to which Lall-Ded calls 'SHASHIKAL or AMRIT. The celestial hormone is sprinkled in the Fore-head, more so in the space between the eye brows to make it feel cool and refreshing with the result, the mental "third eye", with penetrating vision appears in the space between two eye-brows, as a white scar as such a condition of thoughtless state is created and established within the mind and thus purified one merges into the God consciousness.

Note:-

"I am He, whom 'I' Love and He whom I love is 'I' "
"we are two spirits dwelling in one body."

"If thou seest me thou seest 'Him'"

"And if thou seest Him, thou seest us both"

KANGAR :- Fire Pot, internwoven with thin twigs.

PAN-CHENI :- Half burnt leaves of Chinari and other trees, used for warming the firepot.

KAANI :- The thin fine twigs of trees

KUNDLI :- The earthen fire pot, allegorically

Kundlinei which is awakened with intense concentration and meditation of mind at the base of the spine, with its release, a transcendental state, (When the body consciousness in merged with the absolute reality) is realised.

GUNDNAM NAAR:- Felt release of intense heat.

KAAPI EHEIM :- I could get hold on its outer frame (KOPE Kashmiri) Twigs with which it is enveloped. (Physical body)

KAAPI. Kadhan :- I wish I could (KOPE Kashmir) remove its outer insulation and expose the kundlinei open for its realisation.

KYA KAR CHASS CHALLAN :- There is no alternative than to bear with its pain, on its release with Fortitude, to enjoy the perpetual bliss.

Here Lal-DED in her SAADNA wanted to acquire capabilities to know all the feats of SAADHNA as she wanted to awaken the kundlinei which brings new awareness, beyond thought and emotions.

Here she refers to the despondency in her failure to realise the release of kundlinei allegorically by referring to Kanrgi Kashmiri (earthen fire pot, interwoven with fine thin twigs). The half burnt leaves, burnt in the fire, pot gives intense heat for a moment then it is reduced to ashes. So she weeps for the joy as such she feels having lost the vitality for realising the truth. She in her attempt to realise, and release the kundlinei, has burnt all her vital energies by burning all the elements of air within with severe exercise, of inhale and exhale as such she feels an urge to catch hold, of this vital energy 'kundlinei' and make it easily perceptible and released. She wishes, she could bear the brunt of its heat like the fire in the earthen fire pot and wants to feel its sensation and effect. She wants to observe and experience the brunt of the heat of kundlinei released, for that she requires the courage of the moth to burn in the Flame, and such she laments for her courage, and determination; which she is bearing to conquer the grosser self for the realisation of Truth.

O Blessed one :-

Shun off the delusion and watch the grace of the lord. Dive deep into the sea of bliss with a burning desire and determination which will set free all the physical energies with the intense emotions so as to touch the soul's intelligence.

On a scientific plane the brain is serially connected to neural networks which unify NEURAL vibrations which produce the spiritual consciousness of higher order. This is achieved through Meditation and deep exhale and inhale.

Since the human body is said to have seven chief nodal nerve centres, three tracks of nervous energy and the latent energy coiled within like a serpent (KUNDLINI). It rises from the base of the spine. It integrates the main seven CHAKRAS or nodal points. The subtle experience manifests itself in a flow of cool vibrations which can be felt on the hands and also on the crown of the head. Like a cool breeze. It is through these vibrations SADAK gains a new awareness beyond thought and beyond emotions.

As per LAL-DED, SADAK releases a JET of air by exhale and inhale process which awakens the 'Kundlini'. As such the knowledge of one truthful spirit is realized. It is analogous to lining up of body fluctuations with nature's frequency order created with the process of exhale and inhale of breath.

Note:-

'Kundlini' is the fundamental desire power which is placed in the sacrum bone of human beings. This sacrum bone is placed at the base of the spinal cord and it is triangular shaped. Kundlini is like a connecting cord when the energy of kundlini is awakened nerve threads rise and ultimately connect the human being to all pervading power. It starts from the minutest cell to the total being. In this state of awareness all ailments, and diseases are cured and a person acquires new personality. There are three NADIES or channels in the kundlini instrument one in centre is called sushamna, on the left is 'IDA' NADI, and on right is

'PINGLA' NADI, and the latent energy coiled within is called kundlini. When kundlini rises from the base of spine, it integrates the seven main chakras and the subtle experience manifests itself in a flow of vibrations which can be felt on the hands and also over the crown of the head like a cool breeze. It is through these vibration that we gain a new awareness beyond thought & beyond emotions, with this subtle awakening we become sensitive to the state of our CHAKRAS and those of others. Each CHAKRA when cleaned with the kundlini energy enhances our ability to excite emotions and ecstasy.

O Blessed one :-

The doctrine of LAL DED's, philosophy is based on the necessity of Conquering the base elements of Grosser self for the realisation of Truth.

Here LAL-DED refers to Nine Gate ways with which the 'soul' is equipped with, to acquire the knowledge, to free itself from the bondage's of body.

1. The first gate way is that form of knowledge with which the soul recognises an object through the operation of sense organs.

2. The knowledge formed on some verbal testimony of Omniscient.

3. The knowledge in the form of recognition of particular occurrence.

4. The knowledge of what is in other sacred thoughts.
5. The Pure knowledge which precedes the attainment of its final merging with the impulse of the Lord. It is characterised by omniscience transcending all knowledge.
6. The knowledge about soul and its existences. (The soul in conscious substance capable of development imperceptible to senses an active agent as big as the body it animates)
7. The knowledge of Bondages of the soul.
8. The knowledge of the power of the soul which is capable of destroying all its bondages which imprisons it.
9. the knowledge of freedom of soul from all actions.

Then further Lall-DED says. The advanced soul possesses ten PRANAS or powers.

(1) Five relate to five senses, and five other powers known as (i) Bodily, Power.

(2) Mind power (3) Speech Power (4) Power of respiration (5) Power of being in possession of allotted span of life.

The eleventh power is power of KARMA. The accumulated force of action done, or performed by the person.

The influx of karma is by virtue of certain power through which the soul draws in matters from without, through the functional activity of mind, speech and body. Just as water flows into a Boat through a hole.

So karma or effect of actions good or bad flows into the soul and impedes its progress.

It enters through sense organs through emotions namely anger conceit, greed, and too much attachment to material objects, through the agency of mind or speech.

So Lall-Ded exhorts the seeker to shake off all the karma matter which prevents the unfolding of right vision. So the soul which has acquired right knowledge begins to put into practice the rules of right conduct. Karma matter is bound up with the soul and when soul departs, it carries with it the accumulated force of karma and is drawn to such a state which is suitable to it.

Every chained soul is under the influence of six kinds of karma.

1 The force which limits the powers of the soul.

2 The actions which impedes the right path.

4 The force which determines the duration of the association of soul with its physical body.

5 The forces which organises the development and growth of the body.

6 With the experiencing of pleasure the soul feels elevation and with pain the soul feels depressed.

So Lal-DEd advises the seeker to understand the faculty of all these forces, to attain the divine perfection, it is the humanity within each individual. When the soul is freed from the bondage of karma and has transcended the possibility of rebirth, it attains deliverance. So Lal-DED says the karma is the key to the riddle of life; so punya karma is the moral strength, and PAPA is moral weakness.

O Blessed seeker :-

LAL DED is conscious of the damaging effect caused by the five invisible instincts lurking in the body. Like

1 Anger

2 Envy

3 Greed

4 Pride

5 Attachment

Since these impure instincts have a potential of retarding the power of knowledge and intelligence, they have an evil effect on physical and spiritual aspect of life, as such five senses in the body lose their sensitivity, become easy prey to moral weaknesses. If one does not try to lift himself up mentally and intellectually he is classed as spiritual murderer.

It is only when opposing energies are completely annihilated that soul throbs with natural music and is spreading its glow.

She understands that deliverance can only be attained through suppression of lower elements by the higher spirit.

Morality is absolutely necessary to shape man's nature and the path to liberation is through inner conversion. So she laments over the influence of bad instincts and feels desolated and expresses her inability to suppress the lower elements and the grosser self which she compares herself, to the Boat which has gone free by the influence of torrents in the river, she feels that her life's boat is stuck up in the midst of the river, as such she has lost the courage, to conquer her grosser self for the realisation of truth.

Note:-

"Lal-DED directs us to have inward morality and to attach primary importance to motive in conduct of affairs."

O Blessed one :-

The mind is flow of thoughts just as river is a flow of water, the banks of river guide and direct its flow when the banks are not firm the torrents break the bunds and cause great harm.

So when the intellect of man is not firm, purposeful and determined, the mind functions to alter one's purpose; so he never finds himself in a situation in which he could maintain his equilibrium.

As it is the flow of thoughts, that constitutes, the mind, so vacillation is one of its chief characteristics.

Lal Ded says, that nothing in this world is permanent or everything is momentary. So the emotional attachment of thoughts and cravings wither away like petals when the fruit emerges out. Likewise, the forgetfulness is one of the chief quality of the intellect or mind. Then further she says the physical body is the chief aspect of our personality. It constitutes of a physical, mental and intellectual equipment. So it is required to be fed by natural foods which gives it enough potency to sustain its strength hence the hunger and thirst is the chief requirements of the living body.

The last of all, there, is one reality that is the 'soul'. It is universal, supreme, all pervading spirit which embraces everything. The soul of which we are in search is not the object of knowledge but the basis of knowledge of all finite objects. The individual soul possesses, the highest potentiality which is capable of releasing the super consciousness. In short the soul is free from all doubt, perversity, and indefiniteness.

Note:-

"Every man has a innate polentiality to rise and reach the divine stature, if he strives for it".

O Blessed seeker :-

Human Mind has the large capacity for emotions and feeling. It can embrace the entire universe. It is the universal and all pervading spirit which embraces everything.

Besides the emotions, there are animal instincts in human beings, which are desire, ridden, passionate and egocentric their intellectual discrimination is limited, they engage themselves in quarreling and fighting, as such they speak words which can cause violent anger which like daggers enters the ears, and inflames the wrath. The flame of hot words can burst into destructive fire. So upon this heat and distemper sprinkle cool patience. Even though these hot abusive words are pinching and explosive have infact neither any substance nor any weight when given due thought, heedful note and good sense.

O Blessed seeker :-

There is no light greater in warmth than the love and affection of the 'Lord'. LALLA desires that all men of faith should over flow in love and affection, as such one acquires the divine instinct, by which unheard becomes the heard, the unknown becomes, the known". Man must feel natural affection for those around him as such his character is an overflowing sympathy towards all people.

Then further she says, there is no pilgrimage worth the name, than the place where one seeks 'His' gracious presence. It is the seat of emotions and feelings. It is a place where one does not have impure thoughts. By sitting in the right posture one realises the self which continually exists when all experiences are suspended, as such. One realises the highest happiness of the consciousness. The soul when it seizes the reality loses itself in its contemplation and enjoyment. He becomes one with God, as such, one lives with nature with intense feelings and emotions.

Then further she says that there is no greater physical relationship worth the name than with that of almighty 'Lord'. Here one implores the creators assistance and thanks Him for granting the Boon. In this way the seeker gives expression to his humility and dependence. The more we live in the living presence of Lord and, the more we assert the rights of the spirit, the more free we are. By self discipline we can strengthen the release of good impulses.

Again she says, that there is no greater comfort than bearing with the fear of the Lord" As 'He' is watching our affairs every now and then. But 'He' is invisible to the universe just to keep the sanctity of 'His' grace.

Thereby one submits to the will of God which is the law of Holiness. If a person is good, pure and Holy, he will remain so even after his death.

Note:- Love is the impulse of sense and sensibility. It is the joy which the mind enjoys when it reaps the fruits of its good actions. So the path to liberations is inner conversion as such one turns kind, generous and humble.

The neighbours, intelligent one, on listening to the cry, got a different whim. e.g Is there any body who wants to purchase momentary pleasures of the world. The very thought widened their limited understanding an such they thought for acquiring peace and contentment, so this whim produced in them a longing, for renunciation, right thought and right tranquillity.

O wonder, the blessed lady of Anchar lake has given expression to a new idea, i.e that is if there is any body who likes to purchase 'ONION' and 'GARLIC' vegetables bitter is taste but with enough food value, quite opposite to NADIR stem of LOTUS flower since Lal-Ded is referring to ONION and Garlice that is allegorically, Majestic soul and exhale and inhale of breath. As such she wants to enjoy the bliss of her mind, by burning the elements of air within the body, and experiencing the thrill of her final merger with the celestial waves of cosmos with the inhale and exhale of breath, by virtue of which one observes the pure existence, pure consciousness and pure thought.

The intake of momentary pleasures of the world like 'Nadir' the stem of Lotus flower is quite different to Roohn or sense of experiencing the existence of soul.

Note:- Praan- Onion, allegorically the exhale and inhale .Ruhoon :- Garlic allegorically soul, or Rooh.

Lal Ded felt elevated on listening to the poverty stricken Boat lady's note as such she again refers that this world of fancy has no perpetuality nor any potency like the stem of Lotus (Nadir) and she exhorts the people to go for purchase of Rohoon, Garlic allegorically the soul and its salvation with the exercise of 'Praan' the exhale and inhale of breath, to acquire self discipline which begins with the mind first. The spiritual knowledge cannot be acquired by mere exercise of will. It requires the exercise of mind too. It is an existence which flows eternally with peace tranquillity, freshness purity and bliss.

Note :- Rohoon or Gaarlic :- it is a Garlic-Plant with bulbous strong smelling pungent tasting root, it lowers Cholestrol. Its active component 'Allicine' block's cholestrol in the liver.

When the soul is freed from the weight which keeps it down, it rises up to the top of the universe, as such deliverance can only be attained, through suppression of lower elements by the higher spirits.

With the practice of meditation and concentration, an act which co-ordinates one with the divine scheme of things a force or energy is released which enables the seeker to attain the spiritual perfection, by burning the elements of air in the body, with the process of exhale and inhale, as such one attains the thoughtless state of mind and the soul seizes the reality.

Lal Ded says that she has realised the oneness of breath and soul with unbroken calm. It is an indescribable and ineffable vision. It is observed in the moments of illumination. In such a situation the seeker is not affected by the sense of hunger and thirst as all the senses of the body are tuned to the Lord's celestial wave form.

A person who has attained deliverance is called 'Saadh' or Sidha.

A sidha is a person, without cast, unaffected by smell, without sense, of taste, feeling, hunger, pain or sorrow, joy or old age, enjoying unbroken calm all round. During moments of illumination one has to keep complete fast, for attaining spiritual vision, as such the Sadak enjoys, infinite existence absolute truth and pure delight.

Note:-

Wise, self controlled and tranquil souls, who are contented in spirit, who practice austerity, and meditation in solitude and silence are freed from all impurity, and attain by the path of liberation to, the "immortal" the truly existing, the changeless "self".

I practised the feat with rigorous sadhna and devotion and gave extempore expression to my realisation to other seekers of truth. Then only I experienced the realisation of poetic souls, who were moved by beauties of nature.

"I was unreservedly devoted to my mission. I subordinated everything to it. It is then only I realised the essence of my life. So the restlessness of striving mind to

O Blessed seeker :-

What ever action a person does, good or bad, he has to bear with its fruit.

To perform a kind act without expectation of reward or to look at the well being of others, or to sympathise with the distressed people and relieve their sufferings are so called good actions. Lall-DED believes in the foremost necessity of conquering the grosser self for the realisation of Truth, by performing detached actions. It is by constant repetition of virtuous acts that one becomes virtuous in as much as this constant practice transforms the soul providing it with source of energy, to rise higher and higher. she lays great emphasis on selfless service. Service performed with sincerity opens the vision, enlarges the heart and draws out the higher qualities of Man. So she holds punya is strength and papa is moral weakness. So karma should be done without attachment for the sake of the Lord.

Note:-

Lal-DED lays great stress on the acquisition of three jewels.

(1) Right faith (2) Right knowledge (3) Right conduct.

To love the virtuous for his divine qualities, and not to recognise the false creed and false beliefs by dispelling ignorance. The soul acquires right knowledge, if it begins to put into practice the rules of right conduct, to attain the state of desire-lessness by eradicating likes and dislikes.

LAL-DED says that we have-had an existence in the past, as well we shall exist in the future too. Each moment of our life is an obligation, we, have been existing throughout the ages, in various creative forms. Then dissolved and are reborn again and again. Both the spiritual and physical powers of man are divine and the CHOICE is left to MAN's own hands to attain his Goal of righteousness, for the righteous there is no rest neither in this world nor in the next for he goes from host to host, striving to strive until then only one comes nearer and nearer to God until the glamour or light of the Lord' envelops him and he is absorbed.

The sun continues moving in uniform motion round its orbit, for all times to come. It refers to the idea which the individual self is LOST, the universal self is found. Like wise the sun moves from west to east and again from east to west and then at one time sun dies and night comes and then at another moment it is born again and again .

Note:- Lalla's creed, is not of any fixed dogma but images susceptible of indefinite interpretations, unreservedly devoted to her mission. She sub-ordinated everything to it, to such a degree that this universe no longer existed for Her.

O Blessed seeker :-

In order to acquire truth, it is necessary to enquire into it, carefully ponder over it, as such she sought for the mystic moon, within the core of her heart, with right effort to attain the illumination with which the mind glows with the true nature of the Lord. Further she went in search of 'Like seeking out the "Like", but with, little success. She wanted to practise universal benevolence in thought word and deed to become pure from the self, as flame from smoke.

She saw the Narayana , the lord of Lords and after a pause she saw him in the form of 'Shiva', as a 'destroyer' then again the next moment she saw him as a 'beggar' asking humbly for charitable relief, as such she saw His bewitching presence in all these forms. O! my Lord,

'What is this wondrous pastime.

Note:-

Lal-DEd does not murmur against the Lord and 'His' wondrous pastime nor she grumbles against man. It is fully evident that Lal-Ded recognised the existence of a supreme being in various forms. She does not hesitate to use the name of the 'Lord' in any suitable connection. 'Narayana' 'Shiva' then in the form of a begger-asking humbly for a charitable relief.

When the instinct of shame and shyness will break off its chains within me. It is only when I am indifferent to oppressions wrong, mockings, tauntings, & the things which weigh heavily upon my Mind".

When the frame of my body will burn ? It is the moment when the impurities within me are burnt , conceit and desire cease to have' its effect, it is then the spirit within me is freed from bondages of karma and has transcended the possibility of re-birth. It attains deliverance.

Note:- Truth is the beginnings and end of existence. It is for this reason that the man values truth as it accomplishes its end without being conscious of it. Peace and harmony occupy a predominant place in Lal-Ded's teachings. peace is the soul of divine attributes & the symbol of human perfection. The greatest ideal set before man is to bring harmony between man and his fellow man.

Looking with assurance towards the future Lalla has exhausted her patience and has worn out her palate and tongue. She has a confession in her looks that she has neither been able to learn the desired Feat, nor has acquired the desired end of her SAADNA, that could turn her to the highest state of rapture and ecstasy. Which is called ANANDA, where a being is absorbed and becomes one with the Lord and experiences one-ness with Him. I have worn thin my fingers and thumb with the tiresome job of telling rosary beads even then I have not been able to put off the instinct of duality and conceit from my mind

What is the cause of your distemper, why do you grope around like the blind ? The intelligent as you are, look within and watch for the moments of illumination and seize the reality and become one with the Lord which is seated in the corners of the heart. It is then you will have an indescribable and ineffable vision. Hence "ATMAN" is attained. Live in the world of Nature with intense feelings and emotions. Keep faith in my simple tale of truth, for every individual is equipped with a force of energy which would enable him to attain spiritual perfection.

Note:- Absolute truth is eternal self, existant and infinite. It produces effects without action. It accomplishes its end without being conscious.

O Blessed seeker :-

The mind of a person does not feel satisfied, even, if he is provided with all the kings luxury, as men possess varied aptitudes, inclinations and tastes. It is one's attachment to the physical self that makes one lament the death and destruction of things, which are doomed to perish. The decay is inherent in all component things. Suffering is universal, craving for transitory things lead sooner or later to sufferings. To those seeking knowledge, the 'Lord' is eternal light, to those struggling for virtue. He is eternal righteousness, to those emotionally inclined He is eternal Love.

In the end Lall-Ded exhorts

"No place is to found in the world

Where a man may dwell, without being over powered by death
This is the essence of Truth.

"Any thing whatever is brought into existence in this universe contains within itself the inherent germ of destruction. As long as the worldly pleasures allure the mind, people are trapped by greed even at the point of death."

O Blessed seeker :-

Lall-Ded is regarded as a teacher of Morals. She has a firm belief in higher values of life, she is conscious that in her teachings she is expressing the will of the Lord. She says:-

1 One must be calm and composed even when one is inflamed by distemper.

2 Let you be cruel but not unnatural

3 Put off all the Moisture in the dry green vegetable rich in Iron like HAND and WOPALHAK (Kashmiri name)

4 Acquire control over your senses and the pride to keep these within limits.

5 Bear with the temptations which seize a man unawares

6 keep holiness as an aim to sanctify every pursuit. These are stepping stones on the road to holiness.

The life of a seeker is plain and yet not unattractive. It is simple yet full of grace, it is easy and yet methodical and thus the seeker enjoys the reality in which the true self is shining with the true nature of God. It is thus the seeker's mind and body is washed with the waters of eternity and becomes as pure as flame from smoke.

Note:- "A Man with infinit morality in him is never satisfied because the mind of a moral man can always conceive something higher and higher."

"Come up and sit in meditation with full devotion and zeal, have experience of spiritual consciousness. They will co-ordinate your organs of action in the divine scheme of things.

Stand up with all the materials of worship in hand to realise self which continually exists even when all experiences are suspended. Try to release the force of energies which would enable you to attain spiritual perfection.

The Lord is attained not by learning nor by genius or knowledge of books. It is attained in moments of illumination in Meditation.

If you know the proper way of recitation of the sacred letter 'OM' then you will realise the situation when tension between finite and infinite reaches to its highest pitch, in that case the person comes nearer and nearer to the 'Lord' when he comes near enough he sees that he is transformed in to the Lord itself.

"It enjoins the right way of living with all compatriots with the profound feeling of immortal bliss".

"The SADAK's character is an overflowing sympathy towards all men. He never finds himself in a situation in which he could not maintain his individuality. Lal-DED says that she did not let her self remain idle even for an instant she resorted to repeating and concentrating on the Lord's name as such remained active with her spirit chained to supreme. She vigorously followed the path laid down by Her Guru (Master) It is there that she observed the "enlightenment". She gave vent to her blissfulness in sweet simple and melodious tone.

Thus the darkness lurking inside was rendered into the moments of illumination. She realised in Her a liberated soul with an annihilation of mind as such she had acquired the settled conviction that there is nothing higher than the Lord'.

O Blessed seeker :-

Human body is a great wonder, & is a compsite structure of four personalites.

1 The physical

2 The emotional

3 The intellectual

4 The spiritual.

They all work so simultaneoulsy and so quickly that man fails to recognise their fine distinction. So one develops the individuality by seeking the Love of the 'Lord', through emotional and intellectual structures, which eventually result in developing the spiritual consciousness of higher order, the physical body acquires the strength, a feat, to go nearer and nearer to "Lord's" grace. So to love the Lord with all zeal and devotion is one of the Chief aspects required to attain the Bliss of higher order.

Further she says, by concentrating and listening to the sounds, produced in the nostrils, during the process of exhale and inhale, the sounds of 'soo' and 'hum' is produced, Lal-DED calls it 'Shabad swroop' or embodiment of the sacred letter "OM".

The seeker is required to tune and tone these sounds with the wave form of requisite wave length of celestial waves of cosmos, which the Lord is always emanating.

By acquiring control over these rhythmic breathings one can gain knowledge of knowing the feat of Gaining longevity in the life span of one's life. It can be achieved by practising YOGA too, with the sense of breathing.

In addition to these, there must be supreme effort, an act of personal resolution by which 'punya' a merit can be achieved, It is by constant repetition of virtuous acts that one becomes virtuous. This practice transforms the soul, providing it with a source of energy to make the soul rise higher, & higher. As such one realises the Absolute truth as eternal beauty for all times to come, for passion for beauty is a means to link the 'soul' to God.

Here Lal DED exhorts the seeker to eschew animal desires lust and impulsive cravings. All that Lal-DED insists upon is to renounce selfish desires.

It is not by KAAMA (Desires) not by off-springs nor by wealth, nor by sacrifice that immortality is gained.

It is gained by renunciation, sacrifice, solitude, continence and purity. Physical discipline is absolutely essential as such Lal-DED says she has kept no attachment to the instinct of Lust. To the sinful instinct of anger, she has acquired complete control, as such she blew it off like with a stormy wind. She has cut the instincts of covetousness, and desire at the very roots, with the result, the spiritual in-certitude of mind completely vanished from her mind and she felt happy over all her achievements.

O Blessed seeker :-

I wish I could have such a hold on my mind that it could gain control over the functions of the main junctions of the nervous system.

I wish I could know complete functions and its operations, i.e cut, twist the nerve fibers at the main junctions of nerves.

I wish I could know the factors which govern the conduction of velocity of nerve fibers and its precise wave pattern. Just as each nerve trunk has its own characteristics spectrum of nerve fiber type. So the precise wave pattern is also different even then after knowing the various events between the presentation of Stimulus and signalling, even then the experience of realisation of Lord' pervasiveness is difficult to realise.

Please give it an understanding, for its realisation leads to highest happiness of consciousness, and probe into the most intricate parts of the body.

O Blessed seeker :-

In the mortar of 'Love' I grinded my emotions and feelings with heart and soul.

I roasted, burnt chewed these with all zeal and devotion as such I purified my soul by repentance. It is described as the awakening of soul, My heart became devoid of all earthly desires. When the soul has been purified from all sensual desires, the seeker proceeds his journey towards Lord and aims at renunciation of all but God. Then the seeker realises the ecstasy in which the thrill is produced through contemplation and repetition of "HIS" name. Now how do I know, that if 'His' divine grace will sustain my life, and will lead me to the height wherein I will achieve freedom from life and death.

So when the individual self is LOST, the universal self is found.

It is then only the seeker enjoys the reality in which his heart is aglow with the true nature of God. Now she does not know if she will live or die, with such attainment.

Then comes the last stage, in which the seeker sees the God face to face. To put it in another way the absolute having completely realised itself, more intimately, God and man become one in the perfect man. Lal DED says,

"As such even after passing through all these stages I donot know if I will achieve immortality or meet demolition of life."

Razaz hams :- Royal swan who is supposed to sing melodiously at the point of his death.

O Blessed one :-

You were as intelligent as the Royal Swan. How is it ? You have turned mute now. O! some one has robbed you of something within. How is it ? All the organs of body have ceased to function. The brain itself has ceased to respond to the impulses of mind. Now nothing can be swallowed, so choking has come about. Ah! the essence of life 'the soul' has gone off unnoticed. Like the grinding stone mill stopping and the grains choked and the Miller running away with the grains unnoticed.

Thus Lall-DED explains when the end of life comes about the soul departs along with the accumulated fruit of action (Karma-Phall) and is drawn to such a state which is suitable to it .

O Blessed seeker :-

The human body cannot bear inside any foreign body as little as the smallest rice particle. The wonder is how the germs, parasites, Bacteria, other living microbes, & virus of different forms made in the shape of deers , Jackals, Rhinoceros and other infinite number of other water microbes like the sea-elephants, find their way inside our blood stream, to quench their thirst.

Thus a fight ensues with our blood corpuscles, in this struggle for survival, the potent ones survive and others die, as such some are born and some die that too without our knowledge. So the cycle of life and death continues both inside our body stream and outside in the external environment.

The corpuscles in the blood stream are urged to conquer unholy microbes and unholy instincts which give rise to unholy desires and unholy passions. The body and soul of man posses an innate potentiality to kill all such undesired elements to attain a nobler life. The purpose of creation is to manifest the beauty of 'God'. The passion for beauty is a means to link the "soul to God".

Once in a discourse with a Budhist Lama LAL DED says, the pathway of divinity is like a kitchen garden. It must be laboured and fenced with self restraint , pious deeds and by leading a life of purity and detachments to objects.

How long one can enjoy the fruit of good actions performed in the previous births, if no new addition of noble and pious deeds are added in the present life as such one will exhaust the store of the acquired fruit of good actions. So one losses the purpose of life.

Since the Lord is the eternal beauty and purpose of His creation is to manifest that beauty, beauty leads to love and love to bliss as such all duality melts. The Lover and the beloved become one. God is conceived as eternal beauty and manifests itself. The passion for beauty is a means to Link the soul to God, so the soul will establish contact with the eternal spirit. This can be realized only through direct experience. And the Lord declares to him. "This is my word of promise that he who loves me shall not perish". The faith that is required is to form a conviction that knowledge of the self alone, can give the supreme peace". The Lord puts in the person, a spiritual substance which is of God's essence and is neither separate from God nor joined to the mans body. The seeker receives this illumination in proportion to his capacities, strength and resolution, as such he is the embodiment of His grace. What touches me is His simplicity and his grand general unconcern for His Magnificence. It is not so easy to mingle with His grace. The Human soul draws nearer to the divine grace only by contemplation of God's power and wisdom and by constant remembrance of Him with a devoted heart.

The wonder is that no foreign body even a smallest grain can be contained within our body. Yet he with all His magnificence is seated within the core of our heart.

In this affair we shall never cease to wonder at His marvellous simplicity.

The Lord's grace is gained neither by superior clan nor by higher position or riches, only the peace calm, dignified morality & manners help one entering the heavenly abode.

It is by constant repetition of virtuous acts that one becomes virtuous. This constant practice transforms the soul providing it with a source of energy to rise higher, as such one seizes the truth and thence to heaven. In the end with the grace of Guru or Master one is capable of finding a real self within. The Guru is sinless, and is above man's capacity. The Guru is responsible for elevating one's character and increasing his force and energy. That is why in the end, Guru's name is required to gain entrance in the heavenly abode.

O Blessed one :-

It must be recognised that the sadhana or riyazat, requires the most alert nervous control, muscular coordination and judgement, then only the feat of control of mind is achieved.

It is like catching a lion in the jungle and dragging it by its mane and reducing it to mere insignificance like the cuttings down, the shrubs or grass in pastures, then carrying the load on the back.

This further can be achieved by killing the very roots of the sinful instincts i.e. Lust, anger, conceit and greed within. Thus by observing the discipline of control of mind my soul is freed from the weight which keeps it down and it rises up to the top of the universe. Thus I reached to the abode of His lively presence and realised the 'Present' with the vision of His magnificent grace.

SOI BAIRUNG GOME KARITH RANG

O Blessed one :-

Lall-DED recognises only one God who is eternal self existent, incomprehensible and OMNISCIENT. 'He' alone creates preserves and destroys. He is the sole object of adoration and worship. He moves, he moves not, He is far and He is near. He is within and He is without.

Lall-DED exhorts the people to worship and adore the ONE SOUL within, and not innumerable Gods. Who so ever worships another deity than this self, thinking He is one and I am another he suffers with ignorance and delusion. She expresses the restlessness of a striving human mind to grasp the true Nature of reality.

She attempts to solve the doubts of duality. It is to live in infinity as only infinite is everlasting and ever enduring. This duality makes her feel conceited with the ego of "I" ness "Enlarge your ego to the extent that whole is, included in its embrace, so the ageless 'I' has to be vast infinitely immense. "So I am designed in the colour of His making. Even though He has no colour shape or design" As such Lall-DEd has' seized the reality. She has known the truth that she is not separate from the whole. She is in the state of thoughtless-state where she enjoys her being in everlasting and eternal state.

O Blessed one :-

To some people Lord's graciousness, has blessed them with infinite existence pure delight and absolute truth with magnificence and splendour. And some others were not found fit for such a favour, with some others misfortunes have made them face the out-rageous fortunes, as such they bear the whips and scorns of time and bear the oppressor's wrong.

O, Lord ! How weary and stale your affairs are; I salute thee and to your wondrous pastime.

O Blessed one :-

Some visionaries with strange tendencies are blessed with the 'Lords' grace, they remain wakeful even when, they appear to be sleeping with their inward eye open. Some others who try to remain visually awake to observe the moments of illumination, are in fact sleeping without any vision, insight or knowledge. Some others who have washed and cleansed their bodies to make themselves feel clean and pure, suffer with doubt and perversity with impure mind hence cannot suppress their lower elements by the higher spirit:

There are others who live a house holders active life, practising the good with devotion and zeal. It transforms their soul providing it with a source of energy to rise to beyond pleasure and pain. They remain detached with the fruit of their actions, as such they realise a state of no mind.

Note:-

"Every individual is equipped with a force of energy which would enable him to attain spiritual perfection in the moments of illumination. It is God's revelation of Himself. It is His Joy, that assumes all forms".

O Blessed one :-

The Lord is spread up in the entire universe, as well in my heart's core. He does not lose His nature. He is cruel only to be kind. So there is no charm in adoring this deecayed body. As the entrapped soul has to gain liberation from captivity.

It is a lively play for the soul to come into this world as a human being, so it lives in the heart's core free from sin, free from old age, death or rebirth. It continually exists even when all the experiences are suspended It lives in the world but as a stranger. It endures all hardships of flesh yet it lives not after flesh. Its existence is on earth but its citizenship is in heaven. It is a mistaken belief that the soul in man is born and dies.

Lal-DED says, simply it is transformation of soul from one state to another. There is no birth and no death, as such it is a misnomer term that the place at which the child is born has any real existence. It is an optical illusion an intentional false statement and its expectancy might be called miraculous. So the nature is a living entity to which all souls are tuned.

Note:-

The supreme soul though unborn and undying becomes manifest in human embodiment for rooting out of the forces of ignorance and selfishness.

DODRIS = Decayed body

GINDUN = Lively play

HUR = The place at which the child is born

MOR = Body

APZIS = False belief

HURIS = The floor at which the child is born

HANCH = Intentional false statement

O Blessed one :-

One who is equipped with arms and ammunition e.g (bow and arrow), to strike at his enemy, with will and determination. There is no necessity for him to seek any shelter anywhere for he is out to face his enemy with all will and skill.

Similarly one who is blessed with infinite LOVE and al, absorbs his mind with the light of the Lord and drinks the nectar of His making. He conquers unholy desires and pure passions and resists temptations of every sort. There is nothing that can keep one away from self realisation. The struggle for realisation of, Truth, does not require the suppression of the rightful use of the mind, but it requires cultivation of Love & restraint. So, it is required to put off all anxieties, advices and doubts to rise to the height of the occasion and in spite of minds conditioning it prepare one to achieve all heights.

I was never born & I have never given birth to any spring. It is the immortal soul which has gained entrance in my body complex.

I never underwent any pain on account of child birth. I never took any ginger or any special medicinal infusion of herbs, for restoration of my health.

I am neither given to six, sinful instincts e.g. lust, anger, greed, envy, conceit and attachments. Nor I have gone further in my awareness of God realisation than to those saints, who have had realisation of truth and are enjoying eternal and immortal life.

Is there any body who can stop falling of water drop from the roofs of the houses during frosty, rough winter weather ?

O! who can hold the blowing storm in one's fist ?

Only that gracious one, who holds the five sense under control and annihilates the disturbing elements like passions and emotions, it is only then his soul vibrates with its natural, Music exercising its natural functions and spreading its glow. When the soul along with five sense is freed from the weight which keeps it down, it rises to the top of the universe after piercing through the galaxies
 He alone greets the new sun arising in the innermost corners of darkness of the body. Something compelled Lall-DED to smile, a warm motherly smile. Her eyes lit from within by a clear warm light.

"She never appears to have desired to forego her mission for social uplift. Full of heavenly ideals she never abandoned her poverty."

It was the separation of soul from matter and union with divine Essence that made her realise rise of new sun in the dark corners of her mind.

Salalilas = Water

The intense cold, freezes water into other solid forms e.g. ice, icicles, snow and hail storm, so water has changed into other solid forms. Water as a liquid has disappeared by the intense cold and converted into solid state. We must understand this idea. The pairs of opposites Hydrogen and Oxygen radicals join in definite proportion together to form water H_2O . It is the essence of Lords revelation of himself. It is His joy that assumes all forms that we observe. It is difficult to conceive the reality. This is aggravated by the imperfection of the human mind and is circumscribed by space, time and cause. So there, is one reality. It means that soul or ATMAN is the universal supreme and all pervading spirit which embraces every thing in this broad universe, in all forms of creation. It stimulates the mind.

The ice cover, icicle, snow, snow storm, and ice bergs are different solid states of water. This under standing comes only when the sun of consciousness shines, and we comprehend the reality, that all the five forms of water in solid state are in reality one water.

So Lall-DEd intends to give us an understanding that the universe is like ice, icicle, snow and the Lord is the water. She is speaking of oneness of God, and attributes to Him unity of essence, and unity of acts. There is only one God without any second and all the manifestations, appearing to be diverse and countless are centred in that oneness only. True seeker can comprehend it because his illumination is divine. So the aspirant develops the third mental eye by which he sees the Lord face to face.

O Blessed one :-

For seeking truth, the blessed saints resorted to various feats, for acquiring that state of consciousness, where precepts of justice and morality are followed, where fires of greed, hatred, delusion and flames of passions are extinguished. One such method was to meditate with the recitations of strange utterances or words of incantations, spells and charms and hymns of devils and demons, which are called TANTRAS. That knowledge was called TANTRIC (Science) or KRYA.

With the incoming of new knowledge it lost its utility. Followed by Mantras, the Mantras which were words selected, to produce sounds and prayers in set forms by the old sages for the performance of sacrificial rites and ceremonies, the VEDAS and other sacred, books which are transmitting truth thro Mantras are regarded as divine revelations for they contain exalted sentiments.

With the evolution of new thoughts and knowledge of spiritual science these MANTRAS also lost its effectual use, due to wrong recitation and loss of morality of the people at large then the perception of MANTRAS and the actual Text fell into oblivion, and with the growth of intellectual perception and with the intense practice of Meditation and Contemplation, the concept of MANTRAS also faded away and the sages experienced oneness with the universe. Since meditation produces physiological changes. Which includes reduced, heart rate, blood pressure, as well reduces oxygen consumption, reduced blood lactate level and reduced respiratory rate. The body feels deeply relaxed and the mind remains alert. This relaxation response counteracts with states of fear, anger and anxiety. The aspirant or SADAK observes the ways of those saints that are virtuous and righteous and as such they vigorously follow the path laid by the exalted sages. That is the path which leads to happiness. It is there that the enlightened soul dwells in the sweet blissfulness. Hence, the energy released by the alert mind completely synchronises with the divine cosmic energy which the almighty 'Lord' is always emanating and spreading over the entire universe as such one acquires pure consciousness, infinit existence, and pure delight. In this state of consciousness, all the senses of the body are tuned to celestial wave-form and no stimulation of any sort can ever distract one away from the spiritual ecstasy so experienced.

O Blessed one :-

The perfect souls who have attained deliverance, have transcended the possibility of rebirth, as such their souls are not fettered by the bondages of karma (accumulated force of action). As KARMA has attachment to the body as such mind in the body loses all sense of humour, aesthetic pleasure all perceptions of pain and grief. So such souls shine in eternal wisdom and infinite delight. The souls of such eminent persons have capacity to destroy the effects of past karmas too. To acquire such a faculty, these aspirants are required to be initiated in the spiritual path in the early childhood itself, because body loses the capacity to undertake such a rigorous exercise in the old age, in the manner the cracked pot with developed leakages cannot contain ghee, as it will leak, the moment it melts.

Similarly one cannot widen one's faculty of wisdom in old age without having practised, the feat of Sadhna in the youthful age.

Note:-

"The purpose of SADHNA is to manifest the beauty of God and the passion for beauty is a means to link the soul to God".

O Blessed one :-

The Lord can not be realised by any system of prayers or rituals, but by love sincerity zeal and devotion. Some aspirants have renounced their homes and hearths and some live as hermits in hermitages, it is useless to undertake all such renunciations without gaining the control over the senses or mind. It is certain that every seeker with all his sincerity would arrive at his destination by his own efforts alone, by counting his exhale and inhale of breath, both day in and day out.

Tuning with the 'Lords' wave-form will synchronise the aspirant to 'His' wave length as such one will merge with His grace.

So let the aspirant sit at ease and live the house holder's active life, but detached. To work without attachment is to work without the hope of reward or the fear of punishment.

Note:-

"When the heart weeps for what it has lost, the spirit laughs for what it has found."

please sit at ease, Learn the Gospel of Salvation and gospel of truth. Then the realisation of His awareness will automatically come forth. So there is no necessity of observing religious formalities of rubbing the skin with ashes to make one's presence feel.

A seeker is satisfied with whatever God does or God will be satisfied with whatsoever he does.

"Our whole work in this life to heal the eye of the mind by which we see the God."

Her LAL-DED urges the aspirant to conquer unholy desires, impure passions and to resist temptations of every kind. She wants to adore the Lord not by outward observations but by internal purity and goodness. She exhorts people to live in the world of nature with intense feelings and emotions.

She says man has capacity to transcend his KARMA "the accumulated result of action". So long as the soul is fettered by the bonds of KARMA, it is bound up with the soul when the soul departs it carries with it the accumulated force of Karma, and is drawn to such a state which is suitable to it. Please give it an understanding but no tongue. The end of this life is to gain liberation from the chains of the body and merge with his pure existence.

LAL-DED is strict in observing austerities as such exhorts the seeker to live nude and unadorned, even without any possession of property.

Note:-

"the life of a seeker is plain and yet not unattractive. It is simple yet full of grace. It is easy and yet methodical." 'Truth' is the beginning and end of his existence.

To acquire God consciousness one need not go for any sense control or breath control. The aspirant's action or SADNA would produce results, as per his quality. Mere desire or wishing will not lead one to the portals of Salvation. God is Eternal beauty and the purpose of His creation is to realise that beauty, beauty leads to love and love to bliss, all duality melts. The passion for beauty is a means to link the soul to God, as such the seeker realises infinite existence, pure consciousness and pure Bliss. It is like mixing of salt with water. Even if the seeker realises such absorption even then it is difficult to realise Absolute as the Eternal Beauty.

Note:- Salvation is the possession of the impersonal outlook and inner renunciation of the 'EGO'

The Lord does not observe any discrimination, when a man understands this then he will not look elsewhere, but will be in fear and awe of Him and put an utter trust and confidence in Him alone.

The Lord does not believe in high and low, poor and rich as, the sun shines in the universe a like. Does it radiate light and heat waves on the prosperous countries only ? Does not the cool wind enter the houses of all, both high and low equally ? I am at a loss to understand how this sinful instinct of duality and discrimination, has been cramed into man's brain. It is because of this discrimination, that the Lord is beyond one's comprehension and realisation. God is near to man ready to hear, his sighs, answers his prayers, counts his tears, relieve his wants when his own power fails. Wherever a man seeks Him there 'He' is. It is then righteousness and peace kiss each other.

One must surrender to the divine will humbly in fear of God rather than in fear of His punishment. Lal-DED exhorts the people to conquer, discrimination, duality and unholy desires.

"Like as a father hath compassion on his children, so hath the Lord, compassion upon them that fear Him" Through prayer a man confides in Him all his fears and yearnings to attain peace. God longs for the prayers of the Pious. The prayer gives him power to conquer fate, sin, misery and death.

"Even the righteous shall not attain to so high a place in Heaven as the truly repentant"

This is the sermon that I give you O! blessed man. Try to have faith in it, and even then the Lord is difficult to realise."

Which is attainable here upon this earth and in the end I would like to leave for heavenly abode for absorption in reality. Since I am equipped with a force of energy, which would enable me to attain spiritual perfection. My inward mental eye with the penetrating vision has tuned me to the wind and dancing waves in the sea. It makes me Hum a Song. I toss my head in sprightly dance to mingle with His grace."

I wish I could attain the "moments of illumination", as I have seized the reality and am losing myself in the contemplation and enjoyment, and wants to live in a world of nature with intense feelings and emotions".

O Blessed one :-

LAL-DEd infuses into the world a new spirit. Her perfect idealism is the highest rule of the virtuous life. So she proclaims the Royally of her mind. To attain such a status a person of faith and determination is required to realise, the celestial vibrations of mind, which cannot create peace in the mind, till one does not over come infatuation and desires within. So Lal-DED explains, just as a warrior without any arms and skill cannot go to fight a Battle similarly a person who has no vigour in his blood can not coordinate his actions in the divine scheme of things.

An individual must practise virtue and self restraint. Without realisation of self the life has no aim, no purpose, no support.

O Blessed one :-

This world is a stage and the people are the actors, to produce the theatrical effect, produced in real life, then the spirit is seized with such a joy and with such a happiness that It warms us like the sun. It is a second sun rising up in the aspirant's mind. This intoxicates joy. This bright and firm faith comes over us more and more frequently. All that we have to do is to control our senses and mind and kill the sinful instincts of anger hate and enmity, all this done we behold a great dazzling light within like the sun in the sky and visible to the aspirants eyes. Then one rejoices with a child like joy.

O Blessed one :-

Lalla was born as a saint a Tapasvin" Wherever a brave soul was needed there is where people found her. For life did not appear trouble some to her, tears of happy gratitude softened her mind. She wanted to open her heart, before all people, so that they could see how she wished their welfare. As such her intellect and wisdom illuminated her path with light and brightness, to the self realisation. Since the people are inexhaustible source of spiritual and physical strength. It is necessary only to arouse their consciousness. She has found a life that satisfied her. She lived broadly and fully with the power of her soul. She heaved a heavy sigh ! As she is not in agreement with leading the type of life where false hood violence and untruth is practised. So she is happy to live and happy to die, as there is no body to mourn for her, as she mourns for none.

How does "to die signify" ! Does our impression of her as a hero disappear ? The best in her will never die.

Clothed with the knowledge and wisdom of truth engrave the vaakhs that Lalla spoke. Lock these in your memory and tune yourself with the recitation of sacred letter 'OM' with the frequency order of the celestial waves which the 'Lord' is emanating in the cosmos. You will realise a situation where all conflicts disappear and the soul shines forth in its purity and Omniscience. A pure unbroken awareness of self in realised with the realisation of the 'moments of illumination', as such immortality of higher order is attained.

It is by conquering one's self by devoting to the essence of beauty that one accomplish the essence of truth.
